

AMATEUR CHAMBER MUSIC RETREAT

March 21-24, 2024

ACMR Topics

- Ensemble playing
- Listening skills
- Rehearsal and practice techniques
- Intonation
- Rhythm
- Musical interpretation

The Amateur Chamber Music Retreat is designed for instrumentalists who love to play, want to hone their chamber music skills, and would like to share their enthusiasm for music with old and new friends at Garth Newel. No professional experience is required or expected. Preference will be given to pre-formed groups in the application process. The Retreat includes chamber music coachings, rehearsals with fellow participants, reading sessions, a final performance by retreat groups, as well as great food, company, and conversation. Please register early and join us for this 4-day workshop packed with unforgettable musical experiences!
